

Philosophical Thinking for Global Change

Education in Uncertain times

10th, 11th and 12th September 2009
at the University of Cumbria,
Lancaster campus.

A conference for educationalists, policy makers and researchers interested in the ethical potential of philosophical enquiry in education

Speakers include:

Doug Bourne - Director,

Development Education Research Centre

Institute of Education, London University, London.

Mark Chater - QCA

Anne Breivik - UNESCO Associated Schools

Ann Margaret Sharp - Director of Philosophy for Children Graduate Programs Professor of Education,

Montclair State University, New Jersey, USA

For more information about the conference and to book,

please contact Cumbria Development

Education Centre on 015394 30231

email: office@cdcec.org.uk Cost: £300

Organised by:

University of Cumbria

